

Testimonials

"She has answered all my questions, listened to me, and had knowledge of all I needed to get done. She would also call me with a heads up on upcoming events and letters I'd receive to let me know what they're about."

"She is very attentive to our needs. She follows through on all our requests, and is genuine in her approach and execution."

"Thank you so very much for your help. You are always so kind, dependable, and so helpful! We truly appreciate all of your time and support with our son's plan."

"I truly appreciate the guidance you both have given me and my daughter. I learned so much from you."

"We are so grateful for your dedication to our family."

Who We Are

The Brain Injury Alliance of New Jersey (BIANJ) - a 501(c)(3) organization - has been successfully providing quality support services for over 25 years.

Our support coordination team is a collaborative of professionals who have many years of experience working with individuals who have special needs. Our team approach means that we can tap into our varied educational backgrounds, work, and life experiences to enrich our collective knowledge base and provide you with the best possible support coordination service. Our team's common ground is that we care passionately about the quality of life for people with special needs and we will work tirelessly to ensure that your individualized service plan reflects your interests, needs, and choices.

Together we will develop an individualized plan that is right for you!

What We Do

We Listen:

- To understand your history and unique situation
- To learn what is essential and important to you

We Plan:

- To help you create a meaningful life based on your interests, gifts, and talents

We Act:

- To develop an Individualized Service Plan with you and your circle of support
- To coordinate and monitor the services and supports of your plan

We Support:

- With regular visits and phone calls to ensure that your plan is working for you
- To assist you in staying connected to your family, friends, and community

Our Approach

Recognizing every individual is unique, our dedicated Support Coordinators will support your choices to enhance your quality of life and independence.
